

PARKAS' mid-term seminar 2021

Thursday 3rd and Friday 4th of June 2021

FUTURE PARKS: WHY SHOULD WE LISTEN TO PEOPLE?

Digital seminar.

3-4 June 2021.

Language: English.

PROGRAMME

Thursday 3 June: "Challenging the established management"

10:00 – welcome, seminar goals and introduction of Thursday's topics

10:15 – session 1: Management systems in national parks: are they just right

10:20 – Eddie Schmitt (Guttormsen, Fageraas, Simon) "Using Histories of the National Park Concepts in Norway and beyond for understanding tensions between stakeholders – a Heritage for the Future, for whom?"

10:45 – Jukka Nyysönen "Shared frames, sufficient inclusion and decisive exclusion – elements of success in including the Sami herding to the national park management in Finland"

11:10 – break

11:20 – Frode Sundnes and Marianne Karlsson (Lundberg and Risvoll) "The place of Cultural Heritage in National Park's management; the cases of Svartisen-Saltfjellet and Hardangervidda"

11:45 – discussion and activities + summary of session 1 (1 hour with breaks)

12:45 – lunch

13:30 – session 2: Participation and trust for a democratic turn

13:35 – Bjørn Egil Flø “The origin of the mistrust”

14:00 – Aase Kristine Lundberg and Camilla Risvoll (Sundnes, Karlsson) “Situated legitimacy: Examining different dimensions of legitimacy in participatory approaches in Norwegian conservation management”

14:25 – break

14:35 – discussion and activities + summary of session 2 (1 hour with breaks)

15:35 – end of the day – have a beer online?

Friday 4 June: “People: a catalyst for management”

10:00 – welcome, summary of day 1 and introduction of Friday’s topics

10:15 – session 3: Reinventing nature-culture interactions, an issue for the future?

10:20 – Bolette Bele and Véronique Simon (Herring, Fairclough) “Renewed synergies and the quest for the Holistic Preservation”

10:45 – Pete Herring (Bele, Simon, Fairclough) “How historic landscape characterisation could support the National Park and local people care for Hardangervidda”

11:00 – break

11:10 – discussion and activities + summary of session 3 (1 hour with breaks)

12:10 – lunch

12:55 – session 4: Wear and tear, and the challenge of digital technology

13:00 – Nils Aage Hafsal (Fageraas) “Gathering cultural heritage through GIS”

13:25 – Yves Michelin “Valuating ancient maps and archives with a mapserver for promoting local population involvement in heritage preservation: an experiment with a local trust in South Burgundy (France)”

13:40 – Anne-Cathrine Flyen “Resilience towards Human interventions in display of cultural heritage sites”

14:05 – break

14:15 – discussion and activities + summary of session 4 (1 hour with breaks)

15:15 – answering “Future parks: why should we listen to the users?”

15:30 – End of the seminar

Norwegian Institute for Cultural Heritage Research (NIKU)
Norwegian institute for bioeconomy Research (NIBIO)
Norwegian Institute for Water Research (NIVA)
Nordland Research Institute (Nordlandsforskning)
Norwegian Institute for Nature Research (NINA)